

Volker Sack, CEO of DAN/AG, interviewed in the DVFA podcast '13+1'

Frankfurt/ Goettingen, 15 November 2024 – In the latest episode of the '13+1' podcast series from the German Association for Financial Analysis and Asset Management (DVFA), Volker Sack, CEO of DAN/AG, discusses current trends in financial research with Christoph Schlienkamp, portfolio manager at GS&P and long-standing former member of the DVFA Board.

The monthly format is dedicated to a specific specialist topic in each 20-minute episode. An invited expert answers ten substantive and three personal questions, followed by a surprising bonus question, symbolized by the '+1'.

The current episode, entitled 'Financial research in transition – Independence, transparency and the future of analysis', sheds light on key developments in the field of financial analysis. Volker Sack contributes his many years of experience as former head of equity research at Norddeutsche Landesbank and as the CEO of DAN/AG as well as head of the DVFA Commission 'Corporate Analysis'.

The podcast episode is available here (German audio only).

The English transcript of this episode can be downloaded here.

About DAN/AG

Founded in Goettingen in 2022, Deutsches Analyse Netzwerk AG is a Germany-wide network of financial analysts and capital market experts with many years of experience in international equity, credit and fund research. The core competencies of DAN/AG include the preparation of company analyses in the context of capital market transactions and equity coverage for companies from leading indices such as DAX, MDAX and EURO STOXX 50 as well as for small and mid-caps. Market and sector studies as well as training courses, lectures and expert commentaries complete the constantly growing service portfolio.

Press contact:

press@dan-ag.de